

ANNUAL AWARDS GALA

FriendshipCircle
OF CLEVELAND

TRIPLE Triumph

MAY 19, 2022 * 18 IYAR 5782

We Are Proud to be Honoring

Cheryl & Brian Fox
Elayne & Ron Kluchin • Carrie & Scott Simmerson, Lexi & Jamie Inna & Igor Vaytsman-Tziporski, Alan & Jesse

for their inspiring support of Friendship Circle's mission.

We Proudly Salute

the teen friend-makers for their ongoing dedication to sharing their precious gifts of friendship.

The Triple Triumph

reflects the families who met the challenges of Covid with extraordinary resilience, our dedicated teen friend-makers, and our superbly supportive community, continuing to show its support through it all.

It was because of the community's perseverance and shared belief that every child deserves a friend, that Friendship Circle was able to open its doors following a period of severe isolation, and provide much-needed, face-to-face socialization for children of all abilities.

Teen friend-makers were able to realize the value of their selfless giving when their friendships were needed the most.

By honoring outstanding community leaders and a host of teens, we reflect on all we have accomplished together this year, and we celebrate the Triple Triumph.

The Rebbe's Inspiration

Friendship Circle was inspired by the teachings and personal examples of the Rebbe. He taught us that every person is composed of body and soul. The soul is the primary and eternal existence, while the body temporarily serves the soul through its mission in this world.

The challenge of humanity is to live a life consistent with the soul's mission. As we look beyond the veneer of our bodies, we can recognize that all souls are pure and precious. Indeed, the Rebbe's unconditional love of people knew no bounds. He selflessly comforted, counseled, blessed and uplifted young and old...the prominent and the otherwise unnoticed.

The Rebbe considered children with disabilities to have a particularly close connection to G-d, and he regularly urged others to recognize their extraordinary potential. The Rebbe's teachings and example continue to motivate and guide Friendship Circle.

The Heart of Friendship Circle

THREE ENTITIES ARE AT THE HEART OF THE FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE MISSION

- 1. The children of all abilities and their families, who can choose among an array of programs where they can be themselves in a relaxed environment and enjoy connecting with their friends.
- 2. The teen friend-makers, educated to constitute the backbone of Friendship Circle programming by befriending the children and serving as role models. Through their regular Friends@Home visitations and their vital assistance with group programs, they make lasting changes in the lives of children. At the same time, they learn the impact they are making on others, setting a foundation for a life of giving and sharing.
- 3. The community, which enables all of this to happen through its generous involvement. Community members lend expertise, serve on the Board and committees, and provide financial support through grants, independent giving, and participation in Friendship Circle's three annual fundraisers: the annual awards gala in May, My Walk 4 Friends in September and the Year-End Campaign in December.

BRIAN & CHERYL FOX

The Foxes' contributions to Friendship Circle follow numerous roles in the Jewish community. Cheryl formerly chaired the Shabbos Project Cleveland and currently serves on the board of Green Road Synagogue and Kosher Food Bank. Her involvement with Friendship Circle's annual Walk began some 15 years ago.

Brian had been involved in several organizations such as Montefiore, Camp Stone, Jewish Federation of Cleveland, and Fuchs Mizrahi School when he was tapped to become Friendship Circle's third board chair, following Peter Rzepka and Steve Weinberg. Under his leadership, Friendship Circle expanded its board, brought in new stakeholders, and invested in an intensive strategic planning process that is reshaping Friendship Circle's priorities and professional structure.

The Foxes have a daughter and son-in-law, Jenna and Yair Polster, and a foster son, Noah Farrell, whom they welcomed into their family when he was 16. (Coincidentally, he was already a Friendship Circle volunteer friend-maker!)

RON & ELAYNE KLUCHIN
CARRIE & SCOTT SIMMERSON • LEXI & JAMIE

Fittingly, the Kluchin family's three generations of Friendship Circle involvement began with a special friendship. Nearly 20 years ago, Ron, an architect who has worked with many local Jewish institutions, formed a close relationship with Rabbi Yossi—leading to Ron's leadership role in fundraising for the annual My Walk 4 Friends event, Elayne's strong support of Friendship Circle, and the eventual involvement of their daughter Carrie, son-in-law Scott, and granddaughters Lexi and Jamie.

In Lexi, the Kluchins see the power of Friendship Circle to transform lives. An indifferent student as a teen, she learned about Friendship Circle through the participation of cousins Nick and Jordan and decided to volunteer as a friend-maker, eventually becoming a role model for her peers. Today, she is avidly studying to be a behavioral intervention specialist at Ohio University where she helps organize Rosh Hashana services, baby-sits children, and devotes time to many other altruistic pursuits

VAYTSMAN-TZIPORSKI FAMILY INNA AND IGOR, ALAN AND JESSE

The Vaytsman-Tziporskis' Friendship Circle support began when four-year-old Alan participated in programs on Green Road in South Euclid. Then, when Friendship Circle's move to Pepper Pike sparked rapid growth of programs and teen volunteers, Alan's childhood reached new heights as he sang and played piano at major events. That's when Inna, Igor, and Rabbi Yossi began to plan a first: a community Bar Mitzvah at Friendship Circle. Before a full house of friends, a jubilant Alan showed off his musical and Hebrew prowess.

Today, Alan is nearing high school graduation from Orange, where many of his friends are part of Friendship Circle. Now a teen volunteer himself, he devotes time as a friend-maker to younger children and to the Better Together program as a friend to older persons. Sixth grader Jesse has a deep appreciation of Friendship Circle, having joined his brother at numerous programs and events. Inna and Igor, who began life in Mariupol, Ukraine, continue as advocates of the organization that has immeasurably uplifted their family.

Friends of the Month

Sam Friedman My most enriching FC experience was visiting a special friend during the pandemic. Even though we had to keep our distance, we were able to bond and create an amazing friendship.

Rafi Rubeck FC helped me realize the positive effect I had on the friends I interacted with, and how happy it made me to know I was truly making an impact. This lesson is one I will carry—being the best friend I possibly can—because you never know the effect you have on others.

Kylie Soble Friendship Circle has helped me build friendships and connect with teens of all ages in the Jewish community. I learned that an act of kindness can brighten anyone's day.

Ari Friedman My time spent at Friendship Circle has taught me that everyone deserves and needs a friend. I have learned how important it is for everyone to have the opportunity to socialize and connect.

Friends of the Month

Peyton & Brayden Salomon Friendship Circle has given us the chance to help those in need of support, guidance, and friendship. We have met some amazing people through FC.

Mark Gantman Volunteering at FC helped me realize how people will open their arms and see the beauty in others. I now feel comfortable in new environments, ready to accept others for who they are.

Andie Berlin FC has helped me to feel what others are going through. When I saw a friend from FC crying in the hallway at school, I had the confidence to go over and try to understand how to help.

Asher Baskind I enjoy making people happy. I particularly enjoy my buddies who I am matched with on Sundays. I would like to continue working with children with disabilities and volunteering at FC.

Friends of the Month

Dalya Berezovsky I look forward to coming to FC. It is my favorite time of week. Knowing that I can help make someone else feel like they have a friend that really cares about them brings me joy.

Jake Goldman Through FC, I have been able to grow and become more responsible. The traits and skills I develop like patience, caring for and sharing my time with kids, are important, and they will remain with me and be useful throughout my life.

Jude Holz I really like seeing how my friend grows in his communication and interactions. These experiences at FC teach me to be more flexible. Spending time with my buddy and understanding how he feels helps me develop patience, empathy and understanding for others.

Molly O'Neill FC sparked my interest in learning more about working with people of all abilities. It's an area of education that I would like to pursue. My experience with FC opened that door.
